

I. GENERAL PROVISIONS

1.1. PURPOSE OF THE WEBSITE AND THIS DOCUMENT

1.1.1. VEYR CORP is a creative project combining materials from a fictional universe, a catalog of publications, and a user account. The names of corporations and divisions, galactic objects, enterprises, and related illustrations belong to the fictional setting. They do not represent actual production facilities, licenses, or medical services.

1.1.2. These Terms govern access to the website, use of the user account, and use of published materials. The user account and other website features are used in accordance with the current version of these Terms, available to the user in the "Agreements" section. These Terms do not replace separate terms of sale, delivery, returns, or a license applicable to a particular work. Mandatory rights granted to the user by applicable law remain unaffected.

1.1.3. Contact for inquiries: sumrakarvin@gmail.com.

1.1.4. VEYR CORP is the name of the project and does not denote a separate legal entity.

1.2. ACCESS AND USER ACCOUNT

1.2.1. Public pages may be viewed without registration. Certain features require sign-in to a user account. The user provides accurate information required for the selected feature, uses an email address belonging to them, and does not impersonate another person.

1.2.2. Do not share passwords, one-time codes, or confirmation links with other persons. If unauthorized access is suspected, stop using compromised sign-in credentials and contact support. Sign-in through a third-party service is available only after that sign-in method has been enabled on the website; the third-party service is governed by its own terms.

1.3. CATALOG, PURCHASES AND FREE MATERIALS

1.3.1. The available materials, format, and conditions for obtaining them are stated on the relevant publication page. Free access or a zero price does not transfer copyright or grant permission for unrestricted further use. If distribution terms or a license accompany a material, those terms must be observed when using it.

1.3.2. Payment for Products and Digital Materials is made using the methods available during checkout. Sales are made by the project owner, P.S. Dvoynikov, an individual applying the Russian special tax regime "Professional Income Tax" (NPD), under the separate Public Offer (Terms of Sale) published in the "Agreements" section.

1.3.3. The cart and a checkout draft do not by themselves confirm payment or the conclusion of a contract. The conditions of purchase, payment, provision of Digital Materials, delivery of Physical Products, cancellation, and returns are governed by the Public Offer referred to above, together with the information on the Product Page and at checkout. The website does not ask users to transfer funds using payment details received from unauthorized third parties.

2. RIGHTS TO MATERIALS

2.1.1. Texts, images, videos, design, logos, and other materials are protected to the extent provided by applicable intellectual property law. Rights belong to the respective rights holders. Publication of a material on the website does not mean that it is free from third-party rights.

2.1.2. Use is permitted only within the scope authorized by the rights holder, the terms applicable to the particular material, and applicable law. Commercial use, adaptation, or distribution beyond that scope requires the necessary rights. Attribution alone does not replace permission. Mandatory statutory exceptions and limitations to copyright remain applicable.

3. PERMITTED USE

3.1.1. Users must not attempt to access another person's account or restricted data, bypass access restrictions, upload malicious code, interfere with the operation of the website, or use it for unlawful activities. Support requests must not include another person's confidential information without a lawful basis.

3.1.2. Where signs of abuse are detected, access to the affected feature may be temporarily restricted for review and user protection. The reason for the restriction and the possibility of restoring access are considered upon a request to support. Such measures must not deprive the user of mandatory rights arising from obligations already undertaken by the website owner.

4. EXTERNAL RESOURCES AND PERSONAL DATA

4.1.1. Links to third-party websites are provided for convenience and source attribution. The owner of VEYR CORP does not control their content and does not guarantee the availability of those resources. The terms of third-party services should be reviewed on the relevant websites.

4.1.2. Information on the processing of Personal Data is provided in the separate Privacy Policy in the "Agreements" section. These general Terms do not replace consent to the processing of Personal Data where such consent is required and do not authorize advertising communications.

5. WEBSITE OPERATION AND INQUIRIES

5.1.1. The website may experience technical interruptions, errors, and changes to available features. An error may be reported to sumrakarvin@gmail.com by stating the page, action, and error message. Do not include passwords or one-time codes in a report. Information from the fictional setting is not intended to be used for medical, financial, or other professional decision-making.

5.1.2. These Terms do not exclude liability that cannot be excluded by law. Disputes and claims are considered subject to applicable mandatory rules; contacting support does not restrict the right to seek judicial protection or contact competent authorities.

6. NEW VERSIONS

The current approved version is published in the "Agreements" section with its date and version number. Material changes are published before they take effect. Individual notice is provided where required by applicable
